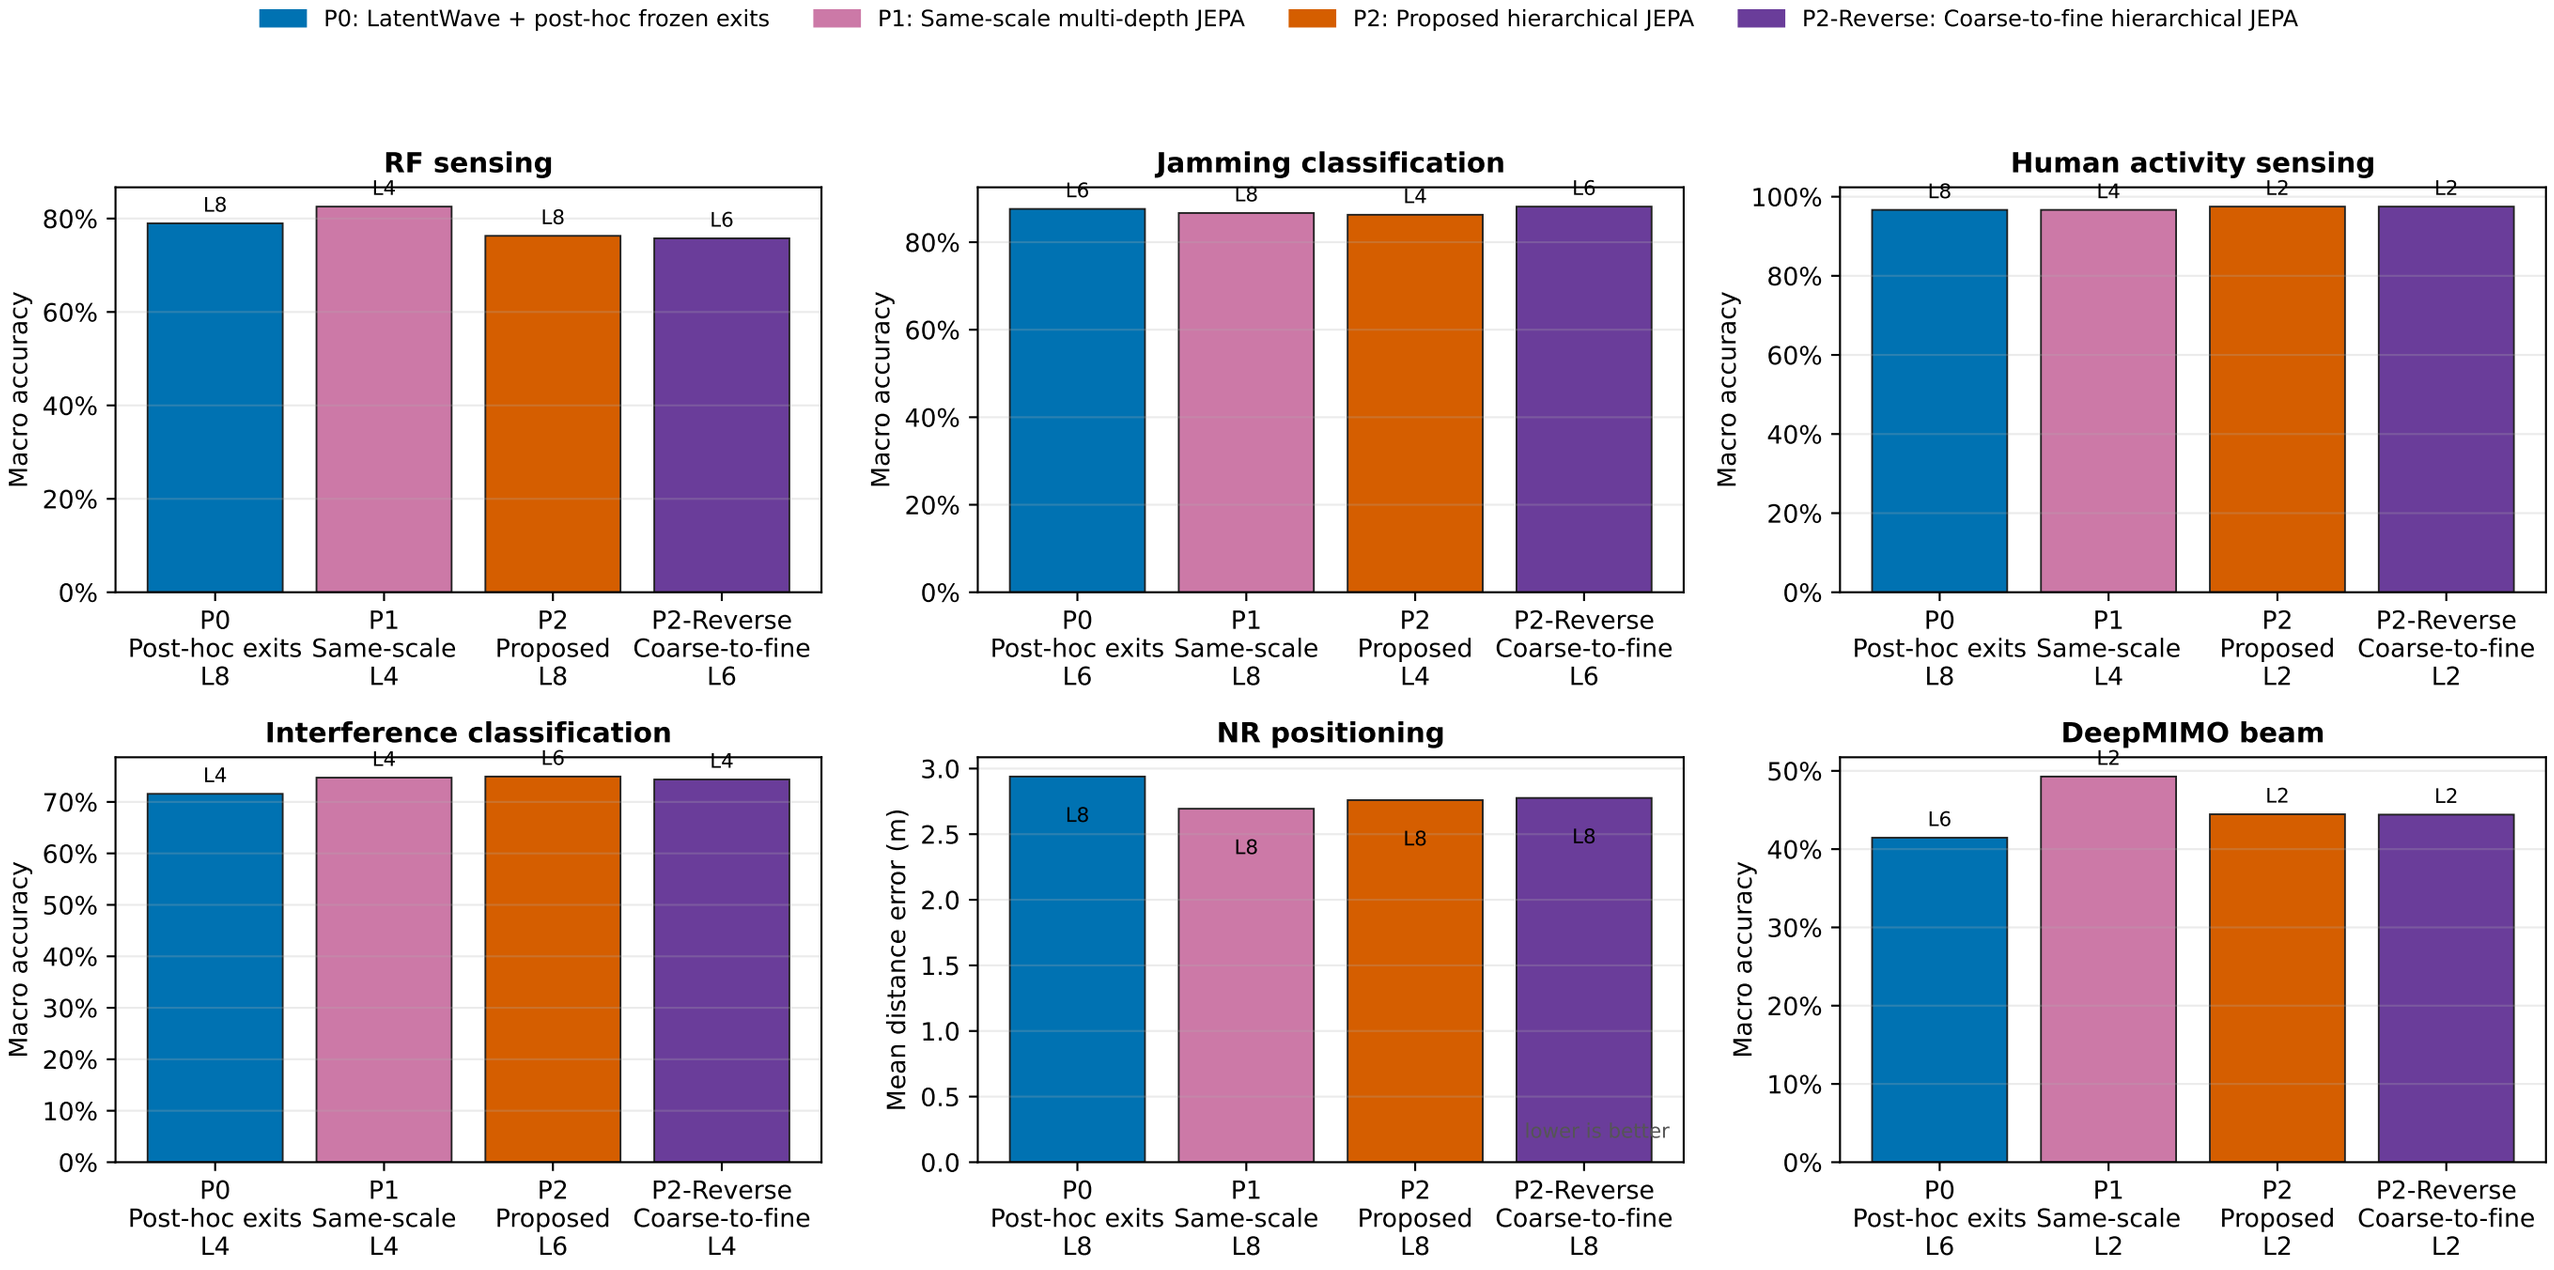
Validation-best exits and held-out test performance



Layer labels show the validation-best encoder depth; selection never uses the test split.